The social sciences include many concepts that are basic to the understanding of the subject matter. Some of these concepts are defined differently and measured differently by social researchers, such as those concerning socioeconomic status. Others are defined and measured in a fairly consistent way across studies and over time.

A key concept in the social sciences, and especially in demography and sociology, is that of the family. The family is generally regarded as a major social institution and a locus of much of a person's social activity. Concepts represent not parsed entities only at the beginning of its appearance, but then turning out to part of the system are influenced by other concepts and modified by themselves. And indeed the ability to interpret the different concepts in different relations indicates that the number of concepts and volume of content of many concepts continually being modified [2, p. 6].

1. Good, teaching.

Сим'я – це те первинне середовище, де людина повинна вчитися творити добро. (В.О. Сухомлинський)

My Mom has taught me to be proud of who I am,
And to never be afraid to be a ham.
My Dad has taught me to be confident,
And do everything I can to the best extent.
My Sister has taught me to be sweet,
And that being with your family and friends is the best treat.

(Nicole C. Anderson «Who I Am Today!»)

(Т.Г. Шевченко "Наймичка")

Grandmas are beams of sunshine built into a hug
That leaves a smile on your face and love within you heart

Grandpas are the wise ole ones that are cuddly as a bear
Who always have a neat new trick and story yet to share

Then there's aunts and uncles, who let us play around
Who we can share our wishes with and still wrestle to the ground

Sisters are our best of friends even when the times are tough
They're there to hold each other's hand and be each other's rock

Brothers often feel the same though it can be too soft to hear
But underneath the silent bond, the love runs strong and clear
And all the above can come in more than one, even more than a pair of two

There's cousins, 'greats', 'in-laws', 'steps', nieces, nephews, and even pets
That warm our hearts and give us joy
Making treasured memories that last a lifetime through

Still the most important two we cannot leave unsaid
Is the love and life that surrounds around that of a mom and dad
For dad is warmth and gentle breezes that stir us in our soul.
Guides us in such qualities of dignity, integrity, and values we should hold.
And in those moments when we reflect on what it all should mean.
Mom is there at the core, the heart of the family.
She lights our path with every step we take so we can see our way.
She’s really what the roots are made of in our family tree.

(M. Коцюбинський "Тіні забутих предків")

"Пізнай свой край ..., право собі, Свій РІД, Свій народ, свою землю – ти побачиш шлях у життя. Шлях, на якому найповніше розкриються твої здібності. Ти даси йому продовження, вторувавши стежину, і з тієї стежини вже рушали у життя твої нащадки. І ти биш ти.
(Г. Сковорода)

А де ж твоє паро?
Де світлічки з дружиньками.
Старости, бояре?
В Москвощині, донько моя!
Іди ж їх шукати,
Та не кажи добрим людям,
Що є в тебе мати.

Man may have been made in the image of God, but human society was made in the image of His opposite number, and is always trying to get back home".
(Stephen King "The Stand")

Family is, never turning our back, and never shame, lend my helping hand and not a finger pointing the blame. No matter what, a family bond can never be broken, even through a nuclear explosion, if one of us lives we all live. Forever to eternity, we are family, my father, my mother, my sisters and me. (Antony-Tyrone Smith "The power of family")

Family凝聚力是一种向心力，家长权利的高低是形成家庭团结-亲和的重要因素。家长的权威是有质量与层次的区别的，有的家长权威是靠武力确定的，有的是靠经济手段或权势确定的；而高层次的权威应该靠良好的素质，即靠通情达理巧妙处理家庭矛盾的能力来取得的。"谈谈家庭凝聚力"
